

BRIEF BIODATA

Prof Eng. Etienne Marcelin KANA

Graduated in the “Ecole Nationale Supérieure Polytechnique” of Yaoundé.

Since 1986, has realized field investigations, geotechnical design and monitoring of major roads and buildings projects in Cameroon and in the central African’s region as well.

He has:

Conducted researches on characterization of African’s soils using correlations between Menard pressiometer and penetrometers tests;

Supervised the redaction of recommendations for geotechnical sites investigations for constructions in African sub-Saharan countries;

He is :

Co-chairman of the 14th African regional conference for Soil mechanics and geotechnical engineering;

Member of the Board of Directors of the Association of African Civil engineering Laboratory (ALBTP) since 2011;

Member of the ISSMGE’s Board level Committee (MPAC) 2009-2013

Appointed Board member of the ISSMGE, from June 2013 to September 2017;

Elected Vice president of ISSMGE for Africa 2017-2021.

Director in charge of Research, education and cooperation in the National civil engineering laboratory (LABOGENIE).

Address:

5, rue Monseigneur Graffin

B.P. 20369 Yaoundé

Yaoundé-Cameroon

Tél : +237 699 50 05 10

Email : emk2cm@yahoo.fr